Armed Forces Funeral Honor Services

Armed forces funeral honors are the same as full military funeral honors with escort, with the exception that escort platoons from each of the military services participate in armed forces funeral honors. These funerals are reserved for the president of the United States (as commander-in-chief), secretary of defense, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or officers granted multiple-service command.

Spouse and Dependent Honors

When a spouse or other eligible dependent of a current or former member of the armed forces is buried at Arlington, the military service in which the service member served will provide a casket team and a military chaplain, if requested. No other military funeral honors will be rendered unless the spouse also served in the military.

Military Chaplain Support

A military chaplain may be scheduled by the cemetery staff, if requested, unless a family minister is desired and provided by the primary next-of-kin or the funeral home.
