

Honoring Their Service

Women in the Korean War

Sixty years after the start of the Korean War, we look back at the challenges and sacrifices that faced women who chose to serve their country during this time. Join the Department of Defense 60th Anniversary of the Korean War Commemoration Committee as we celebrate their service and sacrifices. Also included is a special screening of the documentary “The Real MASH”.

Keynote: Brigadier General (Promotable) Leslie A. Purser
Director, Intel, Ops, Plans, and Policy

Featuring: Lieutenant General Patricia D. Horoho, Army Surgeon General,
Commander, U. S. Army Medical Command

Brigadier General Wilma L. Vaught, USAF (Ret.)
Foundation President, Women In Military Service For America Memorial

Colonel David J. Clark, Executive Director, Department of Defense
60th Anniversary of the Korean War Commemoration Committee

Lieutenant Colonel (Promotable) Nancy Cantrell
Army Nurse Corps Historian, Office of Medical History

Panel of Distinguished Women Veterans of the Korean War

When: Friday, March 9, 2012
1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Where: Women In Military Service For America Memorial
Arlington, Virginia

RSVP to koreanwar@conus.army.mil or 703-545-0011
Light refreshments will be served following the event

The Department of Defense

60th Anniversary of the Korean War Commemoration Committee

2350 Crystal Drive, Suite 1400, Arlington, VA 22202 | koreanwar@conus.army.mil | koreanwar.defense.gov